Winter Sports Are Enthusiastically Supported

National Emergency Red Cross Relief Appeal

Support of National Campaign for Red Cross Society Asked by Premiers

It is generally known that the Red Cross Society is the instrumentality chosen under the Treaty of Versailles to help the people of the neutral countries signatory to the Treaty for assisting in the improvement of health, the prevention of disease and the mitigation of suffering throughout the world, and in doing this into consideration, it would appear to be the only organization for a national appeal for an emergency fund to deal with the suffering, sickness and distress which will be found throughout the various parts of Canada during the winter.

While the governments, Dominion and Provincial, of the various provinces, are expected to do much to relieve the situation, many cases have already come to light which cannot be dealt with under ordinary relief measures, and recognizing this, with the fact that the Canadian Red Cross is the prime minister of Canada, Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, addressed an appeal to the premiers of all provinces for the organization of a National Emergency Red Cross Organization and Campaign which would provide the funds required to carry on this work.

The premiers have responded whole heartedly to this suggestion, with the result that a provincial campaign has been organized to undertake this work, and in Alberta the committee consists of the mayors of all the cities, with other appointees. In addition, the Alberta campaign has been divided into two districts, with a committee in Edmonton looking after the work in the northern part of the province, and a committee in Calgary and Lethbridge for the southern part.

The purpose of the organization is to launch an appeal for funds, the objective for Alberta being a sum of $100,000.00, and the campaign will be opened on November 30th next, when radio addresses will be given by prominent leaders.

The funds raised through this appeal will be administered by the Red Cross Society, with the advice and assistance of the provincial committee, and the campaign which will soon be launched will be the place of the ordinary Red Cross Appeal.

While it is possible that some organizations will prefer to carry on their own work, it is hoped that as far as possible all interested organizations will co-operate with the provincial committee and the Red Cross to secure the most benefit from this effort, as so doing, the overlapping will be eliminated, and it will be possible to bring about the greatest good to the greatest number.

It is proposed to organize local committees in each district so that a thorough canvass can be made, and it is hoped that those interested will stress among their friends the necessity for the appeal on the ground that

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED TO ROD & GUN CLUB AT ANNUAL MEET.

J. Jenkins and J. Plante Win the Big Prizes of the Season.

The annual meeting of the Rod and Gun Club was held in the social room on Nov. 11, when the prizes were awarded for the season's competitions—J. Jenkins was the winner of the cup held by Sam's Service Station and Joe Plante was the winner of the club prize, a roly poly $10. Officers elected were as follows: A. Phillips, president; R. Jenkins, vice-president; E. W. Beart, sec.-treas. The president and secretary were re-elected, and have borne the heavy end of the work in keeping the club organized.

The executive desires to thank the business men for the donations and prizes given the club this year.

COLEMAN PLAYERS PREPARING THREE SHORT PLAYS

This popular group of dramatists are rehearsing and expect to make definite announcement of the plays they contemplate staging for the season. Under the direction of Arthur E. Graham, they have delighted Coleman audiences in past years, and their re-appearance, will be enthusiastically greeted.

FOR LOCAL RELIEF—RED CROSS DANCE BY ORANGEMEN.

The Loyal Orange Lodge will hold a dance in aid of the Red Cross on Dec. 12 in the Oldfield hall. All prices, tickets and advertising has been donated towards the cause, and it is hoped the general public will be as generous in their contribution as the Orangemen were in supporting this appeal. Also remember the national campaign for the Canadian Red Cross.

Luke Lindoe Jr. is spending two weeks at home here. He has been here from British Columbia for over two years.

Mrs. C. Huffman is spending the week in Calgary, and expects to return on Sunday.

CALENDARS AND NOVELTIES

Merchants desiring these for 1932 can order them from The Journal. Prices range from $6.00 to $10 per 100 and would be pleased to show samples at any time. Personal greeting cards with customer's name and address printed thereon, or handsome boxes of one dozen assortments with envelopes to match will be on sale at $1.00 a box. Higher prices on printed personal cards.

While official measures are covering much of the need, there are special cases in situations in which a voluntary organization unhampered by red tape, can act more efficiently than any official body.

The members of Alberta responded to the emergency call of the Red Cross, and with the conditions now prevailing there is reason to expect an equally generous response to this Emergency Appeal.

All readers are requested to be the first to take part in this campaign when it opens on November 30 next, and to assist in making the appeal a success.

Cruises Around World After First Season

Tired, like any debutante after the hectic gaities of her first season, the young lady who, immediately after her presentation at the Court of Neptune, has been to the Orient, is now looking forward to a leisurely cruise around the world.

The young lady in question, the 42,500-ton Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Britain" has just completed her maiden voyage, which was a record on five other occasions. On her final voyage of the season she crossed in seven hours and 49 minutes less than the best record between Cherbourg and New York.

Princes, Ambassadors, Earls, Viscounts, Barons, Knights of many of the highest orders of chivalry and their ladies have vied for her favour; and the high-spirited, gay, and vivacious young Iroquois Indians paid their homage when they conferred "Chieftainship" upon Captain R. G. Latta (ninth) of the "Empress of Britain," and "Chieftain" of the Canadian Pacific fleet.

Reigning the Blue Ribbon of the Atlantic for the British Empire on her second voyage by making the crossing to Father Point, Quebec, in four days 12 hours, 30 minutes, thus breaking the previous record to continent record by four hours and 36 minutes.

"Rome where we shall go?"

Ever remembered by her husband and children, Florence, Helen and Robert.

Beautiful red carnations were placed at the altar of St. Alban's church on Sunday last in memory of Mrs. G. O. Gurnett, her son Frank. The Sunday previous chrysanthemums and carnations were placed on the altar by Mrs. J. Richards and Helen Cornett in loving memory of Duke Richards.

Says League Of Nations Should Hold Meeting In The Far East

Vancouver, B.C.—A suggestion that the council of the League of Nations, or at least a committee of it, should meet as quickly as possible in the Far East, was made here by Hon. Vincent Massey, who returned Sunday, November 22, from the Orient. Mr. Massey, former Canadian Minister to Washington, was chairman of the Canadian delegation to the recent meeting of the Institute of Pacific Relations in Shanghai.

Mr. Massey drew a sharp distinction between the merits of the council taking itself to the scene of the trouble, and the proposal now being discussed of sending an investigating commission. "The conference might meet where it would do the most offence to any nation and it had on it both Japanese and Chinese representatives. The sending of a commission of investigation, however, might easily be felt to reflect on sovereignty and be subject to conditions as witnessed by the Paris discussions of the moment."

The council, or its committee should meet in Tokyo, Nanking and Mukden, Mr. Massey suggested. He thought this action might have been taken earlier and preferably before November 16. But it was not yet too late. He thought it impossible for men meeting in Paris to envision the situation in all its subtleties.

The tremendous economic interests of Japan in Manchuria must be recognized, Mr. Massey said, and at the same time the sovereignty of China there must not be questioned.

The situation in Manchuria was of the utmost gravity, Mr. Massey said. He did not expect an immediate confrontation, but there was a smouldering fire which, if not controlled, might spread.

Mr. Massey believed the initial movement by Japan had been precipitated by the general staff in Manchuria and that the Tokyo Government had been forced to follow. The order of the League to withdraw troops probably had the effect of consolidating popular opinion behind the action of the army. He did not think that normally the Japanese people wanted to encroach upon Chinese sovereignty. The occupation of a hostile territory having some thirty million people, such as Manchuria, was an impossible task and the Japanese probably realized it.

Mr. Massey did not see China as a potential menace to the peace of the world. "The Chinese were natural peaceful people, and he believed a modernized China would have a beneficial effect upon the world rather than otherwise."

London, Eng.—Isabel MacDonald, daughter of the Prime Minister, made it known that she is an "Independent Socialist" instead of a member of the Labor Party.

Conference May Delayed

Western Economic Meeting Likely To Convene Early In December

Edmonton, Alberta.—Delay in convening the western economic conference which met in Calgary, October 19, is imminent in the circles here.

When the session, attended by premiers of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba concluded, it was suggested the conference resume again November 23, in Edmonton. With Premier J. E. Beaton's leave shortly to attend the Chamber of Commerce meeting in Toronto, November 27, and other western government officials likely to attend, it was interpreted that the conference would not be resumed until early in December, probably about December 10 or 12.

Great Loss To Dominion

Halifax Man Deplores Traffic Of Canadian Goods Through U.S.

Winnipeg, Man.—"With conditions what they are, to me it is a situation bordering on diversion to foreign territory and foreign ports of Canadian traffic to the value of more than $1,000,000 a day," Col. E. C. Phinney, president of the Halifax harbor commissioners, declared in a statement to the press here.

To illustrate his point, Col. Phinney stated that Canadian grain moving eastward for export during the year had been handled through the following channels: Via Canadian ports, 47,300,000 bushels; via United States ports, 67,700,000 bushels.

Border Issues Warning

Says If Boom Created It Might Have Disastrous Reaction

Montreal, Que.—While there were signs of improving feeling in the business world, Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Borden, president of Barclays Bank (Canada) in addressing the fourth annual meeting of the shareholders here, cautioned against the use of this change in general feeling for the purpose of creating a "boom" which might have disastrous results. The board of directors were re-elected, and Sir Robert Borden was re-elected president and Arthur B. Purvis, vice-president.

Agreement Reached

Berlin, Germany.—An agreement has been reached between the French and German governments at Paris regarding the invoking of an advisory committee of the World Bank to consider reparations payments under the Young Plan.

U. F. M. Vote Against Any Proposal To Enter Into Politics

Brandon, Man.—Manitoba's organized farmers refused to re-enter the political arena, quitted four years ago. By a sweeping majority, United Farmers of Manitoba in the closing moments of their three-day annual convention rejected a proposal for political action and referred the question to the locals for study.

Seekers for a Socialist Empire in Canada, Manitoba's organized farmers stood up with their Saskatchewan brethren as outspoken opponents of capitalism and private ownership. As an "ultimate objective," United Farmers of Canada (Saskatchewan section), aimed at social ownership and co-operative non-profit production.

Given approval among 20 points of a new "federal policy" passed in a series in hurried, undebated votes, the "key resolution" blamed the present economic crisis on the capitalist system. Capitalism, it was held, was inherently unsound since its basis was private ownership of resources and control of production and distribution involving payment of rent, interest, and profit.

Supported by heavy attendance from the north of the province where favorable crops have been harvested, a series of resolutions asking drastic economic changes were approved. For the first time in the farm body's history, Dauphin, 175 miles northwest of Winnipeg, was chosen as venue of the next convention. Two northerners,

W. J. Ward of Dauphin, and Fred Downing of Kelowna, were re-elected to the presidency and vice-presidency.

Premier John Bracken, Attorney-General W. J. Ross, and Municipal Commissioner D. L. MacLean spoke to the delegates who a few hours before had taken the stand that the Manitoba legislature should be "a super-municipal council without political affiliations." Too, John Queen, leader of the Independent Labor group in the legislature, addressed the convention.

"We can beat this depression if we are prepared to work together and share the burden, to adopt the British motto of equal sacrifice—and I believe we are," declared Premier Bracken. War debts, tariffs, over-production and labor-saving devices, he believed, were the causes of the existing conditions with markets the root of the problem. Universal tariff cuts and nation-wide unemployment insurance were his quoted remedies.

Outline of the recent proposal for redistribution and adoption of proportional representation in Manitoba to save not less than $100,000 annually was offered by Mr. Major. The convention voted its endorsement of the plan, which would cut the number of Manitoba members from 55 to 35. Winnipeg membership would be reduced from 10 to seven, with one member each for Brandon, St. Boniface, The Pas and Rupert's Land, and three members from each of eight rural districts.

Liberals Win Seat

Ontario By-Election Is Won By Opposition Candidate

Guelph, Ont.—Carrying a constituency that has been Conservative, with but one exception, since 1902, Paul Munro, Liberal, was elected to the Ontario legislature for the riding of South Wellington. His majority over W. P. Gamble, Conservative, was 258. The vote was: Munro, 7,209; Gamble, 701.

The by-election was necessitated by the death a short time ago of Hon. Lincoln Goldie, former provincial secretary in the Ferguson Government. Mitchell F. Hepburn, M.P., Provincial Liberal Leader, said the result was significant of public opinion throughout the province.

The result of the by-election leaves the party standing in the legislature as follows: Conservatives, 88; Liberals, 15; Progressives, five; Independent Conservatives, two; U.F.O., one; Labor, one.

Davison Again

Calgary Mayor

Defeats Communist Opposition Candidate By Huge Majority

Calgary, Alberta.—Mayor Andy Davison was carried on an avalanche of Independent votes into the mayoralty chair here for the next two years. Phil Luck, Communist, lone opponent to challenge the mayor's right to a second term, lost out in every section of the city.

Final result of the vote, heaviest in the history of the city, was: Davison, 17,324; Luck, 1,028; majority for Davison, 16,296. The total vote was 18,352, which was approximately 4,000 more than the ballots cast in the civic election last year.

Trade Policy Suggested

U.S. Senator Would Welcome One Mutually Beneficial

Ottawa, Ont.—"Canada has been the best customer for United States products; and I should be very glad to see a policy pursued mutually beneficial for both countries and which would increase the trade between Canada and the United States." So stated Hon. W. H. King, Democratic United States Senator from Utah, and prominent member of the finance committee of the United States Senate. Senator King is a member of the United States Congressional Party visiting Canada under the aegis of William Randolph Hearst, publisher, to investigate the Canadian sales tax system.

Boycott Japanese Goods

Chinese Refuse To Sell Jap Oranges At The Coast

Vancouver, B.C.—A general boycott of goods of Japanese origin has been declared by Chinese vegetable and fruit dealers in Vancouver as a result of the Manchurian situation, and as a result about 50 per cent. of the imports of Japanese oranges, handled by Chinese in other years, will have to be marketed through white dealers. On Monday, Nov. 23, a total of 252,000 bushels of Japanese oranges have been sold. One hundred thousand bushels are intended for consumption in British Columbia and the remainder are for the prairie provinces.

Study Agricultural Problems

Delegates From Alberta To Attend Meeting In Toronto

Edmonton, Alberta.—Premier Alberta agriculturists, headed by Premier J. E. Brownlee, will attend a meeting in Toronto on December 27 which has been called by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of discussing possibilities of the formation of a Canadian institute of agriculture.

The functions of the proposed institute would include a thorough and continuous study of agricultural problems and of marketing possibilities in Canada and other countries, and the dissemination of information as to quantity, quality and sales requirements of these individual markets.

Besides Premier Brownlee, who will deliver one of the three keynote addresses, the Alberta party attending the conference will include H. C. Craig, Minister of Agriculture; Senator D. E. Riley, High River; E. W. Jones, Superintendent of Agriculture for the Canadian Pacific Railway at Calgary.

Premier Brownlee added that the Government would immediately consult its technical advisors and stated he was determined to use every possible means to stop the waste of gas in the valley.

Honors Go To Alberta

Exhibitors Of Reward Wheat Score At Royal Winter Fair

Toronto, Ont.—Leading honors in the spring wheat classes at the Royal Winter Fair went to Alberta. The first six placings except fourth, out of nine prizes went to exhibitors from that province. This is the most important event in the seed department of this show and really represents the wheat championship class for Canada. There were over 70 entries this year and all wins were made on the outstanding variety, "Reward," a wheat originated by the Dominion Experimental Farms. The winners were: Eddie J. Shank, Athabasca, first; J. H. B. Smith, Pincher Creek, first; William Taylor, Grand Prairie, third; George Gifford, Will Rose, St. Albert, first; Fred Parfitt, Wembley, sixth; Herman Trele, Man, seventh; A. Anderson, Swan River, Man., eighth; and Leslie Bartlett, Vauxhall, Alberta, ninth.

No recent move has been made in that direction. During the debate on the budget at the last session, suggestions were made that such action be taken. They did not receive very serious consideration and since then the matter has not been under review.

More U.S. Branch Factories

New York.—The New York Times in a special dispatch from Washington says Canada as well as Great Britain is being looked to by manufacturers of the United States for further establishment of branch factories in view of the anti-dumping measure now passing through the British Parliament.

Commission Appointed To Inquire Into Transportation Problems

Farm and Labor Party

Single Government For Three Prairie Provinces Is Advocated

Brandon, Man.—Single government for the three prairie provinces should be sought by united efforts of farm and labor organizations in the west, advises A. J. Macaulay, president of United Farmers of Canada (Saskatchewan section). He told the convention of United Farmers of Manitoba that prairie government was costing entirely too much.

Leader of the 30,000 members farm body which recently decided to step into politics, Mr. Macaulay said farmers of Saskatchewan believed they could co-operate with the Independent Labor Party on an economic policy for farmers and workers.

"We are in the process of down to real economic issues," Mr. Macaulay concluded. "We must avoid suspicion and politics and endeavour to do the things that are the best for the west. Political parties are controlled by campaign funds. There is every possibility of a conference in the near future of agriculturists representing the areas from Quebec to the Pacific Coast to set up a national fiscal policy designed to aid agriculture."

Would Stop Gas Waste

Oil Company Declines To Accept Government Conservation Policy

Edmonton, Alberta.—The Imperial Oil Company has declined to accept the agreement for the conservation of gas in Turner Valley as proposed by the Provincial Government's advisory committee, Premier Justice L. P. Duff, chairman of the London Underground Electric Railway System; Sir Joseph Flavelle, Toronto; Beaudry Leman, Montreal; L. F. Lorne, New York; Dr. Walter C. Murray, president of Saskatchewan, and Dr. J. C. Webster, Shetland, N.B.

Must Stabilize Wheat Prices

Dollar Wheat Necessary To Restore Business Conditions

Toronto, Ont.—Dollar wheat is necessary if there is to be any great revival in western Canada, said A. M. Shaw, Dean of the Agricultural College of the University of Saskatchewan.

"The disparity between wheat prices and commodity prices is still entirely too great," he commented at the annual joint dinner of the Ontario Agricultural College alumni and the Western Ontario branch of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists.

"What will have to go to $1 or $1.10 before it will create much purchasing power in the west. The outlook for agriculture in western Canada is the outlook for Canadian business as a whole. Agriculture is pre-eminent and predominant."

Germany's Crop Above Average

Berlin, Germany.—Germany's grain production for 1931 includes 3,669,000 tons of winter wheat and 564,000 tons of summer wheat, said its final crop report. The wheat crop exceeds that of last year by 440,000 tons and is 30 per cent. above the average for the last seven years.

Japan Has Requested That Russia Keep Out Of Manchuria

Tokyo, Japan.—A friendly warning that serious complications will result if Russia sends troops to north Manchuria was despatched to Moscow, by the Japanese Government. The Japanese ambassador at Moscow was instructed to convey the warning to Max Litvinoff, commissar for foreign affairs.

The ambassador was directed to inform M. Litvinoff that no damage was done to the Chinese Eastern Railway during the advance of General Honjo's Japanese troops to Tsatsihar. The railway is jointly operated by Russia and China.

The railway, the Japanese note, had been used for the transportation of Chinese troops.

The note denied that Japan was "manufacturing" rumors of Russian assistance to China.

A proposal that a commission of investigators visit China proper as Manchuria was looked on with favor.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Were a married couple told they must live for one month on groceries valued at $4.24, they would wonder how it could be done. The provincial government official who arranged the list states that for this amount of money a hamper of groceries can be purchased in Calgary at retail prices. The biggest item on the list is 50 lbs of flour at 90c, sugar is next at 10 lbs for 58c, and the various items such as prunes, rice, beans, rolled oats, salt, laundry soap and matches, make the total of $4.24.

These prices are from a list sent out to municipalities as a guide for direct relief. The footnote states: "It is the policy of this department to purchase supplies from the local merchant, provided his prices are fair. If they cannot furnish these goods at a reasonable margin on these prices for profit and transportation, then the goods can be purchased from the nearest centre."

These prices were compared by a local retailer with the prices paid for wholesale purchases in Calgary. They were higher than this supposed retail list. Where is the spread? How can the government purchase goods so cheaply when retailers cannot even at wholesale prices purchase as cheaply? It would be of interest to know. James Ford, town clerk, when asked for the explanation of such a list and such prices, and the suggestion that an adult couple should live on $4.24 for a month's groceries, said he suspected the name of the man who drew up the list began with Mac.

Snow on sidewalks is a nuisance. Though property owners may clear their frontage, there are often gaps which appear to be nobody's business to clear. It would be a good thing to give unemployed men jobs clearing the sidewalks immediately after a storm, or else pay for a team to drag a wooden snow plow through the heavily used area of the town. Snow often is allowed to accumulate until it is an eyesore and a nuisance in many ways. The station approach is one place that usually requires attention throughout the winter. Now is the time to arrange for this little service and give an occasional job to someone who needs it.

Two campaigns are under way. One is to raise by loan from the people of Canada for the people $150,000,000, and there is every likelihood that those with savings and funds to invest will furnish the required sum. The other is the campaign for the Red Cross, of which Alberta is required to raise $100,000. It is easy to prophesy which will be the most quickly secured. The appeal for the government loan, of course! It entails no sacrifice; it ensures a profit to those purchasing bonds. One makes its appeal on basis of business, in which the purchaser is rewarded with ample interest and security. The other is an appeal for which virtue is its only reward, and the satisfaction of performing a good deed.

The increase of the use of natural gas in Alberta impresses those dependent on the coal industry that to meet this ever increasing competition, research must be continued to develop a more efficient method of the use of coal. Mechanical stokers, pulverized fuel, manufacturing gas from coal, are factors to which serious study must be given if the coal production of the province is not to continually decrease. Such aids to the use of coal will be of far more benefit than artificial bolstering of the industry against foreign competition, and there is a big market to be served right in our own province.

Airplanes flying over the mountains with temperature many degrees below zero is a practical demonstration of the usefulness of this southern route to the coast. On Saturday a Consolidated Co. pilot was so confident that instead of taking the safest route along the railway line, he made a cut-off across the mountains to Calgary. Many aids to flying will have to be established before mail planes will be enabled to operate on a schedule, but undoubtedly necessity will eventually prevail and cause the erection of beacons and guiding marks.

The saving grace of humor is a very useful quality. Some appear to be born humorists. Will Rogers has capitalized his wonderful sense of humor sufficiently to draw an income equal to that of the president of the United States. George McManus in his "Bringing Up Father" has characterized people whom one meets in everyday life to such an extent that his fame is known throughout the world. Of course it must be a serious business producing jokes and cartoons every day of the year, but the reward is sufficient to keep them in great good humor. If we make an attempt to be humorous, our flights are overshadowed with the condition of the cash box, which is liable to make one's sense of humor very grim.

Here's a Little Story

Retailers

A young tailor complained bitterly about his poor business. "I make just as good clothes as —'s do," he said, "and I sell them for less, yet —'s get most of the business of this district.

This young tailor felt that men "ought" to find all about him—that they should search him out. He didn't see that it was HIS job to make known to all men the fact that he made good clothes and sold them at attractive prices. —'s, on the other hand, advertised their business, and, of course, men went to them for their clothes.

It's the same the world over—buyers go where they are invited to go. They buy, in largest numbers, from those who give them information about their business, service, goods, prices. This is exactly as it should be.

Why shouldn't the most aggressive seller get most business?

The world likes to buy from keen sellers—from retailers who pay them the compliment of telling them about what they have to sell and about their desire for their custom.

Dumb retailers may be fine men, may give good values, may be first-class storekeepers, but the buying public prefers to go where advertisements in their newspapers direct them to go.

The wise retailer runs his business in line with what buyers want, because it is profitable to do so.

It costs a retailer far more NOT to advertise than to advertise.

"You know perfectly well what I meant," she answered, a tremor of anger and wounded feeling in her voice. "You thought I was implying—trying to find out your name."

"Well!" humorously—"You were, weren't you?" Then, as her lip quivered sensitively, "Ahh! Forgive me for teasing you! And"—more earnestly—"forgive me for not telling you my name. It is better—much better—that you should not know. Remember, we can only have this one day together; we're just 'ships that pass.' He paused, then added: "Mine's only a battered old hulk—a derelict vessel. And derelicts are best forgotten."

There was an undercurrent of deep sadness in his voice, the steadfast, submissive sadness of a man who had long ago substituted endurance for revolt.

"Remember, we can only have this one day together." The quiet utterance of the words stung Jean into a realization of their significance, and suddenly that she was conscious that the knowledge that this unknown Englishman was going away—going out of her life—filled her with quite disproportionate sense of regret. She found herself unexpectedly up against the recognition of the fact that she would miss him—that she would like to see him again.

"Then you want me to forget?" she asked rather wistfully.

Her eyes fell away from his as she spoke.

"Yes," he returned gravely. "Just that. I want you to forget."

"And—and you?" The words seemed dragged from her without her own volition.

"Oh!" he laughed a little—"I'm afraid I'm inconsistent. I'm going to ask you to give me something I can remember. That'll even matters up, if you forget and I—remember."

"What do you want me to give you?"

He made a sudden step towards her. "I want you to dance with me—just once. Will you?"

He waited for her reply, his keen, compelling glance fixed on her face. Then, as though he read her answer there, he stepped to her side and held out his arm.

"Come," he said.

Almost as if she were in a dream, Jean laid her hand lightly on his sleeve and he pulled aside the portiere for her to pass through. Then, putting his arm about her, he swung her out on the smooth floor of the "salle."

BABY FRETFUL, RESTLESS?

Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses, seems unable to sleep restfully, look for one common cause, doctors say. Constipation. To get rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, a cleansing dose of Castoria. Castoria, you know, is made specially for children's delicate needs. It is a pure vegetable laxative, containing no harsh drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Yet it is just as effective for older children. Castoria's regular use will bring back the comfort and restful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT

sleep. Not infrequently, in the course of this species of mental abdication, a good deal of the glamour which invested the doings of a previous day gets scrubbed off, and a new and not altogether pleasing aspect of affairs presents itself.

This was somewhat Jean's experience when she woke on the morning following that of the fancy-dress ball. Looking back upon the events of the previous day, she found that her newly-tubbed, matinial mind almost incredulous that they should have occurred. It was like a dream—life itself tricked in fancy dress.

Stripped of the glamour of romance and adventure with which the unknown Englishman had contrived to clothe it, the whole episode of their day together presented itself as disagreeably open to criticism, and the memory of that fine scene in the alcove sent the blood flying to her cheeks. She asked him in mild amazement how it was possible that such a thing should have happened to her—"to our chaste Diana," as her father used laughingly to call her in recognition of the instinctive little air of aloofness with which she had been wont to keep men at a distance.

Of course, the Englishman had taken her by surprise, but Jean was too honest, even in her dealings with herself, to shelter behind this excuse. She knew that she had yielded to his kiss—and knew, too, that the bare memory of it sent her heart throbbing in an inexplicable tumult of emotion.

The stolen day, that day embarked upon so unconcernedly, in a gay spirit of adventure, had flamed up at its ending into something altogether different from the light-hearted companionship with which it had begun.

Then her conscience, re-created and vigorous from its morning toilet, presented another facet of the affair for her inspection. With infinite detail it recalled the whole series of events before her, dwelling particularly on the fact that, with but very slight demur, she had consented to abrogate the accepted conventions of her class—conventions designed to safeguard people from just such consequences as had ensued—and winding up triumphantly with the corollary that, although like most men in similar circumstances, the Englishman had not scrupulously to avail himself of the advantages the occasion offered, he had probably, none the less, thought rather cheaply of her for permitting him to do so.

To Be Continued.

New Concept Of Evolution

Records Go To Show Evolutionary Forces Move Incredibly Slow

A new concept of evolution was presented to the National Academy of Sciences meeting at New Haven, Conn.

Based upon 42,000,000 years actual evolutionary records, the new idea indicates a creative force still at work. It disputes Darwin's thesis that accidents are part of nature's progress. It challenges the ability of modern science to change human essentials quickly—even to change them in less than millions of years patient effort.

This new evolution was developed by its author, Dr. Henry Fairfield Osborn of the American Museum of Natural History, one of the world's foremost authorities on prehistoric diversity.

His prehistoric records are those of the Titanotheres, a family of animals which developed horrid snouts, and of the elephant family, which identically termed the proboscideans.

"The grinding teeth of the proboscideans" said Dr. Osborn, "enabled us for the first time to establish the rate of evolution in an extremely important adaptive organ, very slow even in the course of 10,000 years."

"This incredibly slow rate exposes the fullness of modern experimental research which would produce a new character in a single year, or a few seconds."

Which Deals With Reflections

The dawn of a new day possesses a curious potency of readjustment. It is as though Dame Nature, like some autocratic old nurse, wakes us up and washes and dresses our minds afresh for us each morning, so that they come to the renewed consideration of the affairs of life freed from the influences and emotions which were clogging their pores when we went

Not All For Home

Mechanical Inventions By Women Are Also Aid To Industries

The man who swore he never saw a woman put hammer to nail without smashing her finger and who claimed that the scores of labor-saving machines for the home were all the product of man's inventive genius, received plenty of surprises if he was among those present when the Tenth Exposition of Women's Art and Industries opened at the Hotel Aston, New York. It is in the section devoted to models of devices patented by women that most man found disposed of his contempt.

Sixty-five women inventors from all parts of the country had models of their designs on display.

The fact that the records of the U.S. Patent Office show that more than 15,000 patents have been issued to women in the last 15 years is cited as proof of the progress of the sex in the inventive fields. Although many of the models displayed are of household articles, a large number deal with the field of industrial arts.

One of the most valuable of women's inventions to be seen at the Exposition is the Coston flare light, burning like red fire which is used by the Coast Guard and mariners all over the world for signaling. It was invented and patented by Mrs. Martha J. Coston. Other inventions by women include devices for increasing the comfort of travellers on railroad trains, improvements for roadbeds and rails, traffic signals and block signals.

Harsh, Gripping Purgatives Are Dangerous!

Cheap, harsh laxatives may prove very costly. Painful rectal troubles are often aggravated by the numbing effect of griping cathartics.

ENO'S FRUIT SALT is pleasant, gentle, safe and sure.

A daily dash of ENO'S FRUIT SALT, a mixture of water or milk, tones up and sweetens the entire system. Acid stomach, fatigue, biliousness, quickly disappear.

An Interesting Exhibit

Thuringia Princess Spent Thirty Years Completing Collection Of Dolls

At Arnstadt, in Thuringia, an exhibition unique in its way is attracting hundreds of admiring spectators. It is the collection of dolls which was once the hobby of a princess. Early in the eighteenth century Princess Dorothy of Schwarzburg-Arnstadt spent thirty years making the collection complete. It comprises 450 dolls in eighty dollars' houses, and is so arranged as to give an accurate picture of the court and society of the period. Groups of dolls also represent scenes from the working and commercial classes, with every detail of the costumes worn in these days.

Forsian Balm—the ideal toilet requisite for every discerning woman. Perfect in results. Creates complexion of rare beauty and charm. Delightful in smell and effecting. Never leaves a vestige of sticking.

Babes as blithe as a buttercup; Flotsam tossed on the city's foam; Little ones out at the Children's Home.

Toddlers stumbling into the sun, Marching demurely, one by one, Blue-clad ranks at their morning play, Nobody's little ones, grave or gay; Lonely as naught else under heaven's dome.

These are the waifs at the Children's Home!

Lonely for lack they do not understand, Lack of a mother's tender hand; Baby who laughs seemeth all used up.

Babies as blithe as a buttercup; Flotsam tossed on the city's foam, Little ones out at the Children's Home!

Lonely for lack they do not understand, Lack of a mother's tender hand; Baby who laughs seemeth all used up.

Lonely for love and a chance to live, Things that it seems life ought to give. May this thought, somewhat, to the right heart roar, And how come for some child from the Children's Home!

Doctors have said so; men and women everywhere have found it so. Any headache—from any cause—is always relieved by one or two tablets. And lots of other aches and pains. Neuralgia. Rheumatism. Napping pains. The pain from colds which makes you "ache all over." Sore throat. Systemic or "muscular" pain. Aspirin can spare you lots of needless suffering! Be sure you get Aspirin—not a substitute!

PENNY WISE, POUND FOOLISH

When a Waupaca (Wis.) merchant told the Waupaca County Post that he had received 50 statements from customers who had paid less than 25 cents, the Post decided that the incident was worth an editorial. Editor John Burnham did a little investigating and evolved the following compilation:

"We learned that that printing salesman makes Waupaca about once in three months. He stays 24 hours and spends approximately $5.00 in this city, for room and gas. He stayed at the camp site to avoid patronizing a hotel.

"During the same three months, to coincide with the period which that printing covers in his canvassing, the Waupaca newspapers have spent in this city:
